Abstract:

The CADMAD website <http://www.cadmad.eu> was established on M3.

The website presents two main domains;

1. The public domain, which aim to (a) introduce the CADMAD consortium, project concept and vision; (b) enable contacting the project coordinator; (c) provide related news and links.
2. The partners restricted domain, which offers an access to project records, e.g. submitted documents, deliverables, and meetings updated information, along with an online platform for partner's communications (forums). Every partner has received a private login password.

In this document, a description of the CADMAD project web site is given.
