To the right of the menu is a large world map. A callout box over the map highlights Chile with the text: "Your choice: Chile", "Project: CEST+I", and "CEST+I seeks to support science, technology and innovation cooperation between the European Union, member states, associated countries and Chile." Above the map is a banner for "bilateral EU cooperation in science • technology • innovation" with flags of various countries. On the right side, there is a "Current Information" section titled "CAS Fellowship for Young International Scientists" with a description and a link to "apply 1-15 Sep". Below this is an "Interactive Map" section stating that countries with active BILAT projects are displayed in blue and can be zoomed in using a mousewheel.
