

Fig. 1. Chimeric foldamer proteins generated by swapping one or several natural α -helical domain with synthetic helical foldamers. Illustration of the concept with a 90 residue long protein with three zinc fingers : Zif268.