Impacts of Financialisation on Society, Environment and Economy

This conference will focus on understanding the causes and consequences of the financial crisis and the role of financialisation in the financial crisis.

 15 Octubre 2015 - 17 Octubre 2015

 Portugal

Financialisation has pervasive effects on our societies, and the FESSUD project seeks to analyse and understand those effects, to probe the interrelationship of financialisation and financial crisis and to develop policy agendas.

This conference will focus on understanding the causes and consequences of the financial crisis and the role of financialisation in the financial crisis. It will be concerned with the policy agendas towards financial stability through regulation and macroeconomic policies.

The conference includes sessions in which FESSUD researchers present and debate their research findings, panel discussions on policy responses, key note speakers, and presentations on financialisation.

Conference sessions:

- + Financialisation, financial and economic crises: what have we learnt?
- + Finance and everyday life: (re)producing differentiation
- + Financialisation and industry
- + The policy mix in EU new Member States and Turkey
- + Money, finance and sustainable development
